ABOUT VERSICO

Versico was formed through the acquisition of a major EPDM supplier in 1993. Since that time Versico has positioned itself as one of the top single-ply roofing systems suppliers by clearly focusing their efforts on quality products and exceptional service.

MISSION

Versico is dedicated to forming and sustaining long-term strategic relationships to ensure quality and value for our customers. We are focused on every aspect of roof ownership for you and your organization.

EXPERIENCE

With nearly two decades of single-ply roofing experience as well as a full staff of industry experts, Versico is your single source for single-ply roofing. From design to manufacturing, installation, warranties and maintenance, Versico can provide all of the solutions for your next roofing project.

PERFORMANCE

Because each building is different and has unique requirements, choosing the right roof is only part of the total solution. Exceptional quality and professionally installed products are critical to any successful new or re-roofing project. A member of Versico's Technical Service Department will inspect the final installation to ensure compliance with Versico's warranty requirements.
